IS YOUR HUSBAND IN DEBT?

May be he isn't. If so, he is one in a thousand. Few homes are entirely free from incumbrance. If your husband should die to-morrow, how would you pay off the mortgage? Thousands of wives and children are turned out of their homes for lack of a few hundred dollars at the death of the father and husband.

Don't be one of the foolish ones. It's your duty (if not for your own, for your children's sakes) to urge your husband to assure his life.

Get him to take a 20-year Tontine policy in the Equitable Life Assurance Society. If he lives 20 years his policy may be surrendered for cash, and you all reap the benefit. If he dies before that period, you and your children are safe from want.

$65.00 mln

Is now more than £4 10 0, and one ought to be able to get a good suit for £4 10 0. And so you can, Sir, at J. Brown's (Terms: Cash).

Berlin, 7th—The documents presented by Pastor Ahlwardt in the Loewe gun scandal are not as compromising as at first thought, nor are the charges proved against some of the army officers implicated. If the accuser cannot present more conclusive proofs, he will probably be sentenced.

Madrid, 7th—In political circles it is thought that Governmeni is purposely delaying the negotiations for a commercial treaty with Germany, in order not to compromise those going on with France.

The latter have not advanced a step, and if they break down, Government will make more liberal treaties with the other Powers. A Liberal Deputy has given notice that he will question Government on the point.

Paris, 7th—M. Bourgeois, Minister of Justice, counts on reviving the prestige of the Judicature, which has been lowered by the events of recent years.

Brussels, 7th—The Monetary Conference is now considered a complete fiasco, and will be closed without having accomplished anything of importance.

Madrid, 7th—Silveyla's speech in the Deputies has caused a sensation, showing the split amongst the Conservatives. The fall of the Cabinet is considered imminent.

St. Petersburg, 7th—The Russian papers are very pleased with the Ribot Cabinet. The Nocosti says that Ribot as Premier and Foreign Minister defines the international policy of France in favour of closer relations with Russia.

Paris, 7th—Some cases of cholera have occurred at Epernay.

Berlin, 7th—The election of Pastor Ahlwardt as Deputy to the Reichstag has caused a sensation, as it will give more importance to the Loewe armament trial.

At the last sitting of the Court, Ahlwardt's counsel withdrew, alleging that he was not allowed to freely defend his client. This has caused much comment.

Rome, 7th—Countess Visconti and her maid have been stabbed to death in her house. A young German has been arrested on suspicion.

The Pope has received the missionaries from Patagonia.

Washington, 7th—Senator Hill has presented a Bill to rescind the Purchase of Silver Act.

Philadelphia, 7th—Ledger's publishing office has been destroyed by fire. Loss $500,000.

Melbourne, 7th—The Directors of the Anglo-Australian Bank have been arrested for issuing false balance-sheets.

(Per Havas Agency.)

Paris, 7th—The new Minister of Education will also take the portfolio of Public Worship.

Madrid, 7th—In the Deputies Manuel Silvala attacked Premier Canovas violently about the resignation of Minister Villaversa.

It is probable that the Cabinet will resign.

(To the "Prensa".)

Washington, 6th.—The most important part of President Harrison's Message is that in which he recognises the necessity for a change in financial policy, but expresses regret at the overthrow of the Protection system. He advises Congress to take tariff reform in hands at once. The President also refers to the honourable and friendly conduct of Chile in the settlement of the Baltimore affair.

London, 6th—Uruguayan Bonds fell ¼ point to-day, and Argentines of 1886 half a point.

The Times correspondent in Paris says that the proposal to make the Investigation Committee a supreme court of justice to try the Panama case is a revolutionary proceeding.

Brusseles, 6th.—After Sir Rivers Wilson's speech at the Monetary Conference, Rothschild withdrew his silver project.

Paris, 6th.—Mr. Clemenceau has assured the Pope that, if the Extreme Left of the Chamber be represented in the new Cabinet, the Church will have nothing to fear.

St. Petersburg, 6th.—In some parts of the empire the famine is far worse than last year.

Rome, 6th.—The Pope is firmly resolved to persevere in his democratic policy, although very few of the Cardinals approve of it.

Berlin, 6th.—Pastor Ahlwerdt was to-day elected to the Reichstag, to represent, Answalde. There is no chance of discovering who gave him the public documents in the Loewe cannon scandal.

THE BUDGET FOR 1893.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

Notwithstanding the notorious inconvenience of framing a budget in two kinds of money this has been again done this year, as in the report of the Committee of Deputies. For greater clearness we shall reduce the gold items to paper-money at the current rate (282) and present the entire budget in currency, comparing the several items with those of 1891—

	Expenditure, $ currency.
	1891	1893
Interior....	63,120,000	17,440,000
For. Affairs	3,220,000	1,020,000
Finance	69,810,000	83,660,000
Justice.....	8,110,000	8,330,000
Army.....	10,980,000	12,900,000
Navy.....	8,850,000	6,510,000
Total ...	164,090,000	129,860,000

This shows a reduction of $34,000,000 in the estimates of expenditure for next year, as compared with last year's. But it is right here to observe that the actual expenditure in 1891, as shewn in Mr. Hansen's report of last September, was much less than the estimates.

	Expenditure, 1891
	Voted	Spent
Interior....	63 120,000	44,490,000
For. Affairs	3,220 000	2,220,000
Finance	69,810,000	51,220,000
Justice.....	8,110,000	7,610,000
Army.....	10,980,000	10,250,000
Navy.....	8,850,000	8,440,000
Total...	164,090,000	124,230,000

It appears, therefore, that Pellegrini's Cabinet spent 40 millions less than authorised by Congress, but this was perhaps not so much the result of any virtuous economy as of a vacuum in the Treasury, which was unable even to pay the Government-house gas-bill. The budget now before Congress supposes an expenditure, as already shewn, of $129,860,000, that is nearly 6 millions more than was actually spent in 1891.

According to Mr. Hansen's report the revenue in 1891 compared with expenditure thus—

Expenditure..	124 230,000
Revenue	75,501,000
Deficit.....	48,729,000

This deficit was met by emitting $5,030,000 of small notes in Buenos Ayres, and making an issue of Moratorio bonds in London.

We now turn to the Ways and Means in the budget for 1893 and compare each item with the product in 1891:

	Product in 1891.	Estimate for 1893.
Import dues.....	47,990,000	61,200,000
Export ,, ...	5,380,000	6,480,000
Warehouse &c.	2,140,000	3,440,000
Internal r'venue	19,991,000	18,940,000
Issue of bonds, &c	48,729,000	47,100,000
Total	124,230,000	137,160,000

The issue of bonds was last year nearly 49 millions and is estimated for 1893 at 47 millions, but this method of finance is only staving off bankruptcy and plunging the country every year deeper into debt. Strictly speaking such issues form no part of revenues, and if we eliminate this item the account stands thus:

	1891	1893
	$ currency	$ currency
Expenditure...	124,230,000	129,860,000
Revenue.....	75,501,000	90,060,000
Deficit.....	48,729,000	39,800,000

The present budget, therefore, shews a deficit of 40 millions currency, which is to be met by an issue of Morgan bonds, but if the country is unable to pay its way we cannot sufficiently condemn these fresh obligations. This method reminds us of drawing bills on the town pump.

Would it not be more straight-forward for Congress to say—"The revenue "for 1893 is likely to reach 90 millions "currency, and the expenditure must "not exceed that sum. The Government "is, therefore, authorised to come to an "arrangement with bondholders, on the "basis that any surplus between expen-"diture and the above sum of 90 millions "be handed over to them."

If the Deputies pass the Budget in the form recommended by the Committee it must then go to the Senate. If the Senate pass it we shall be simply adding 40 millions (that is $14,000,000 gold) to the National debt, and at the close of 1893 the country will be in a worse position. It is time now to make some effort to re-organise the finances, instead of continuing the issue of bonds, and we are glad to see that the Finance Minister is of our opinion on this point, as expressed in his note of the 25th ultimo.

The foregoing statement of finances is in currency, but it may be more satisfactory to some of our readers if we give the figures in gold, 360 being the rate of exchange for 1891 and 282 for 1893.

	Estimates of expenditure.
	1891	1893
	$ gold	$ gold
Interior....	17,360,000	6,180,000
For. Affairs	880,000	360,000
Finance	19,200,000	29,630,000
Justice.....	2,230,000	2,950,000
Army	3,020,000	4,570,000
Navy	2,430,000	2,330,000
Total....	45,120,000	46,020,000

It appears, therefore, that (reduced to gold) the estimates for 1893 are $900,000 over those of 1891. But it must be borne in mind that the actual expenditure last year was much less than the sums authorised by Congress, and the several items compare with the present estimates thus:—

	Expended in 1891	Estimates for 1893
	$ gold	$ gold
Interior....	12,230,000	6,180,000
For. Affairs	610,000	360,000
Finance....	14,080,000	29,630,000
Justice.....	2,090,000	2,950,000
Army.....	2,820,000	4,570,000
Navy.....	2,320,000	2,330,000
Total....	34,150,000	46,020,000

Here we have an apparent increase of $12,000,000 gold, but this arises in great measure from the improved value of the currency. In fact if the paper-dollar had remained unchanged the estimates for 1893 (at 360) would not exceed $35,750,000 gold, that is only $1,600,000 over 1891.

Reducing the revenue of 1891 to gold we find the principal items compare with the estimates for 1893 as follows:—

	Revenue in 1891.	Estimates for 1893.
	$ gold.	$ gold.
Import dues....	13,150,000	21,700,000
Export dues....	1,450,000	2,300,000
Warehouse &c.	590,000	1,220,000
Internal taxes..	5,500,000	6,720,000
Total.....	20,690,000	31,940,000

This is really an enormous increase, almost 60 per cent in two years, and we do not hesitate to say that it is very probable the revenue for 1893 will reach the above estimates, equivalent at the present price of gold to 90 millions currency. It will be seen, however, that the deficit in 1893 as before stated will be about $14,000,000, viz:—

	$ gold.
Estimated expenditure.....	46,020,000
,, revenue.....	31,940,000

It is to cover this deficit that the Committee recommends the issue of $14,300,000 of Moratorio bonds.

NEW ENGLISH MAGAZINE.

The foreign public will decidedly welcome Mr. Pennington's venture of The Arrow, for we have long felt the want of a monthly magazine in English, which could occupy itself at length with subjects that are more or less beyond the scope of a morning paper. At the outset Mr. Pennington has succeeded in enlisting among his contributors the ablest literary and scientific men on either side of the River Plate, some of whom have from time to time availed themselves of our columns to speak wise words in season.

The Arrow, as appears from the prospectus, will be a miscellany of fiction, poetry, science, arts and letters, illustrated in the best style, with first-class engravings. The first number will appear with the New Year, price one dollar currency. We may here observe that in 1863-64 the late Mr. Williams published the River Plate Magazine, which was well got up and which met with general approval; but the foreign public was then too small for such an undertaking. Mr. Pennington's chief task will be to keep his contributors up to the mark, subscribers he will have in hundreds: from the beginning. The enterprise is of course costly, but the income from advertisements will help, as it will be an excellent advertising medium, for we hope to see The Arrow in every household where English is spoken.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

Nov. 12th

The character and political carreer of the late Duke of Marlborough who was born in 1844, but looked much older than his age, is thus summed up by the Times—"He was his own worst enemy." The Times seems to think that the duke's abilities were such that had he only been more steadfast in his social and domestic relations his political influence might have been very different to what it was. The Rev. Mr. Price-Hughes has just suggested that no co-respondent in a divorce case should be admitted into Parliament. That ban would not have touched the late duke, for he was only a respondent. His wife divorced him.

Up to this moment I have not heard what provision has been made for the present and again widowed duchess, formerly Mrs. Hammersley of New York and daughter of Commodore Price, U. S. navy. I should not like to be of the party at Blenheim. The family are not on good terms with one another. At Woodstock deep sympathy is felt for the duchess who is very popular and was most kind to her tenantry. The party of course includes Lord Randolph Churchill, the Marchioness of Blandford—late wife of the deceased duke in the gay days of his marquisate—her three daughters and the son, now Duke of Marlborough. The dowager duchess will be treated with excessive politeness—so excessive that I guess she will wish herself in New York.

* * * *

The St. James' Gazette publishes the following:

Mr. Morley's Evicted Tenants Commission is in a state of collapse. Mr. Edward Murphy has resigned his seat, and it is stated that he has taken this step because of the tone of the President's opening statement and his attitude later on when the question arose as to the right of landlords' counsel to cross examine.

* * * *

The origin of the collapse—supposing it to be true—is the rather high-handed behaviour of Mr. Justice Matthew at the opening of the Commission. He refused to allow Mr. Edward Carson Q. C., who appeared for Lord Clauricarde to cross-examine witnesses. Mr. Carson thereupon called the commission a sham and a farce, which remark the President said was impertinent and a disgrace to the Irish bar. Mr. W. Kenny Q. C. said he entirely concurred with the observation made by Mr. Carson. "That" said the President "is an equally impertinent and disgraceful remark." Upon which the two Q. C.'s retired.

It is fair to Mr. Justice Matthew to state that at the commencement he explained with the greatest mildness and politeness what the procedure would be—that the proceedings were not judicial and it is understood that they would be modelled on the Scotch Crofter commission. Of course, Carson meant to embarrass and prolong the proceedings, and Celtic blood fires up on both sides and there we are. Mr. Gladstone should have selected for President a stout beefy Saxon who would have blinked over his spectacles at Mr. Carson or at ten thousand Carsons, and advised them to keep their shirts on.

It must be confessed Mr. Justice Matthew was needlessly—almost offensively partial in stating the case of the tenants against the landlords and particularly in his mention of Lord Clanricarde. It would have been better to have allowed the landlords' and the tenants' cases to have disclosed themselves in the evidence, taking care to limit cross examinations so that the proceedings should terminate at the time required, that is before parliament met.

Of course, Lord Salisbury in his speech he has just addressed to the English Unionist non-conformists—the gentlemen with consciences—made the most of the incident, as he did of the Uganda question and every other artificial bait in the conservative bag excepting one—protection; which events in the United States have rather spoiled. It was amusing to see the Morning Post suddenly pluck up courage to launch out in favour of protection the very day that the news arrived in the evening of the utter rout of the protectionists in America. A rout not only of the Republican party in the States who lost by over-pressing their advantage, but of every similar class of psalm singing scoundrels who hoodwink the poor but with but one thought—their own shops, their own rents, their own interests.

* * * *

Mrs. Catherine Parnell has herself filed a petition of bankruptcy in Brighton. It is thought that this event may adversely affect the release of the Irish league funds in Paris. A letter from Mr. T. Harrington, M.P., appears in the Dublin Independent announcing that he and Dr. Kenny, M.P., will act as delegates on behalf of the Parnellites to meet Mr. Davitt and Mr. Dillon, M.P., to discuss the question of the Paris funds.

* * * *

The cotton crisis in Manchester and neighbourhood has mostly assumed the form of a lock-out, but up to the present it is by no means universal, though it affects more than sixty thousand hands. In London the unemployed who have held a peaceful meeting in Trafalgar Square are apparently under the influence of men of a different caste to that of the respectable middle-class gentlemen in broadcloth such as John Burns Esq., M.P., Mr. Ben Tillet and Mr. Tom Mann. The new leaders rejoice in fine old English names like Beckert and Jeckua, and talk of bombs and dynamite. They "interviewed" the editor of the St. James's Gazette, who was nearly frightened out of his wits, but was saved by the police and his own Titanic "comps." The editor's offence was speaking disrespectfully of the unemployed as "roughs." He made a great deal of the interview and advertized his paper largely. The dynamite scare in Paris is dying out, though the saucepan business was really horrid. You will know all about it. The newest feature in the case is that the Socialists have offered their bludgeons in the service of the police to smash the Anarchists. I should not be surprised if Mr. Burns and Mr. Tillet and their friends volunteered to suppress Messrs Beckert, Jechua and Co. in London. The mystery of good and evil descends to phagocytes and bacilli.

THE BAZAAR AT QUILMES.

Dec. 7th.

My dearest Juanita. Town is always like a howling desert to me when you are away, but I have a dim idea that you are brightening up dear old Quilmes a bit and that a good many people are going out there for your wonderful bazaar on the 8th.

How I envy you your fresh river breezes and the lovely view which I know you can always get from the Rooke Quinta. And next week, I shall envy you still more when you are all sure to be revelling in strawberries and cream, pretty frocks and all the novelties adorning your bazaar stall, and which are certain to make both useful and handsome Xmas presents.

We can go to the Tigre or Palermo any day, but we can never hope to go to Quilmes again for only one dollar, so you must set out your pretty wares at an early hour, as I am sure we shall all be dying to rush out to you, the first thing in the morning.

I never can solve the question of what to give for holiday presents. So your bazaar will be just the thing and prevent us all from working our fingers to the bone over impossible preraphaelite dandelions worked in the end of a crash towel or going blind over smoking caps left afterwards to Mr. Moth's ravages.

The society woman of to-day is nothing if she has not some kind of work in hand or a mission. It is the fashion to be philanthropic: and a very good fashion it is too, provided we are really in earnest, and that we really know something or mean to learn something about the special line or work we take up. Do you remember Juanita, how many crusades we have joined from time to time together? And yet after all we are only triffers, as woman's mission now-a-days covers a very large ground of higher education, hospital training, visiting the poor and sick, mothers' meetings, happy evenings and schools for poor children, or it may be drink, or some other burning question of the day.

Then woe betide the ill-informed and foolish who weakly tilt against some particular form of weakness or wickedness, single-handed.

This is why when any question comes up here amongst our English women, it is better for us all to work amicably together, if we wish to make our mission a success at all, and the support of an English Protestant Church abroad should be of vital importance to us all.

We hear very often from all classes of people very misleading statements as regards the support of our National Church Very few of us ever enquire into the history or position of the church matter as it stands to-day. We imagine the church of England to be impossibly wealthy from ancient tithes and endowments, or are misled by constant assertions from platform and press, about "State paid clergy" or "clerical servants" of the State etc. when to-day there are no state paid clergy of the church of England at all.

The statement that the nearest way to an Englishman's heart is through his pocket, though not much to our credit is very true as regards the pounds, shillings and pence pertaining to our churchmen, leading busy lives, having little time for the study of such matters; they, too, are inclined to take things as they find them; especially is this true abroad and at home; I have heard people say that the State paid the clergy to the tune of ten millions a year, when it does nothing of the kind.

I should like people who grumble at Church work or Church Bazaars, to find out, as there are no state paid clergy, how many of our clergy live at all? much less repair or build new churches.

Without outside aid, this would never be possible, especially as regards the clergy themselves. We expect them to dress as gentlemen, and still we find that holding such a position they are obliged to give away a considerable amount in the course of a year, in the shape of alms and subscriptions and subjected to rates and constant calls for charity, without many times the opportunity of increasing their incomes.

Church goers are often inactive in meeting the requirements of their Church, because they do not know the extent of its pounds, shillings and pence and trust too much to the good solid work of its clergy, as its best defence.

Good sound information regarding the financial history and claims of the Church of England would induce people to use more daily generosity and thus further the noble work of Christianity at home and abroad.

Counting tithes, rents, etc., given before and after the Reformation, we find it leaves at the present time a net yearly value of about three and a half millions sterling. This, if divided equally among twenty thousand bishops and clergy at home, would give each about one hundred and seventy-five pounds per annum. So, you see, there are not many sixpences to support the church abroad with left, and we have no estancieros here who are wealthy enough to build and endow places of worship for their families and tenants as the lords of different estates did in the olden time. Now the church work here must be carried forward and supported by ourselves; so let us all join, dearest Juanita, in wishing every possible success to your Quilmes Bazaar. May you have your little church lying like a brown wren in its nest, near green fields, surrounded by sweet smelling flowers; plants, trees and blossoms, though voiceless, helping it to praise God with their heaven-born scent, as all the freshness of verdant nature adds an additional charm, an indescribable sensation of peace, calm and devotion to church service in the country.

F. O.

A NEW ARGENTINE DEAL.

The retiring Argentine Ministry has signalised its departure from office by an act of financial policy sufficiently arbitrary to render us thankful that its power of working mischief has come to an end. The act in question consisted of a gratuitous advance to the Santa Fé Provincial Goverament of £600,000 in Funding bonds. It appears that this Government found itself pressed by its creditor, the Fives Lille Company, which, as is well known, undertook the service of the railway bonds issued by the Province. In order to retire the bonds given to the Company for arrears of interest and redemption the loan in question has been made by the nation. The arrangement, however satisfactory to the bondholders, appears, when regarded dispassionately, merely as an indefensible piece of favouritism by which Santa Fé benefits at the expense of the other provinces, for unfortunately many of the provincial governments find themselves in equal, if not greater straits. The whole affair smacks very much of a job, the more so as the consent of Congress to the transaction was neither asked nor obtained. All the security that the nation gets for the loan is an hypothecation of the Land Tax of the province, the proceeds of which are to be paid into the Banco Nacional to provide for the service and amortisation of the bonds handed over.

Some attempt has been made, in the decree authorising this loan, to give a colour of precedent to the transaction by citing previous arrangements with the provinces of San Juan, San Luis, and Entre Rios. arrangements also made without the consent of Congress. But these in reality implied nothing more than a change in the method of liquidating existing National liabilities, whereas, in the case of Santa Fé, the nation is burthened with an entirely fresh debt of £600,000 for the benefit of that province. To use a term of English law, this is a fraudulent preference of one creditor to another, or we might even go a step beyond, and say that it is much as if a bankrupt parent were to pay his son's debts before settling with his own creditors. What is to prevent the other provinces labouring under a load of debt—Cordoba for example—from coming to the Central Government and claiming a subvention to meet their pressing liabilities, in short it is tolerably clear that a one-sided arrangement of this sort is an injury, not only to the nation at large, but to the bulk of its foreign creditors, and a Government that engages in such a transaction lays itself open to a strong suspicion of being actuated by other motives than the welfare of the Republic. Fortunately, we have now, it is to be hoped, entered upon a new era.—Financial Times.

HISTORICAL RELICS AT THE FAIR.

The objects of historical value and interest which will be shown at the World's Fair will be legion. It is safe to say that the collection will be ten times as numerous as has ever been witnessed in one place before. The Columbus relics alone will be very great in number and will include the majority of the important portable reminders of the famous explorer. One of the best contributions will be shown by Pennsylvania, the collection being furnished mainly from Philadelphia under the auspices of a committee of its city council. Among the objects in this collection are the following:

The chair occupied by Thomas Jefferson when writing the Declaration of Independence; the table on which it was signed; the silver inkstand used on that occasion; Thomas Jefferson's sword; chair of memorial woods, including parts of Columbus' house in Spain; bell rung at Valley Forge when Washington occupied that place with his army; sofa belonging to George Washington and used by him when he lived in Philadelphia; bench made from pew in old Christ church occupied by Washington and Lafayette; punch bowl used by General Washington and other officers of the revolutionary army; baby clothes made by Mrs. John Adams for her son John Quincy Adams; ale mug that belonged to John Paul Jones; Peale's portrait of Washington, the first ever painted; first lightning rod invented by Benj. Franklin; electrical machine invented by Franklin; original model of John Fitch's steamboat which ran between Philadelphia and Burlington, from 1787 to 1790; unsigned copy of the Declaration of Independence; fans used by Franklin at the court of France when he was minister there; cast of Washington's face taken during life from original mould used for Hondon's statue; clocks of Benj. Franklin, William Penn and Oliver Cromwell, running and keeping good time; Gilbert Stuart's portrait of Washington; Thomas Jefferson's thermometer; lock of Jefferson's hair; Pocahontus' necklace; surveying instrument used by William Penn in laying out the city of Philadelphia, and the famous Liberty Bell.

From the scene of Columbus' discoveries and labors will come relics even more interesting and venerable.

Two of the cannon that he brought over for the defence of the island of San Domingo, and which have lain for centuries neglected and half buried, have been dug up and sent on to Chicago.

The Commission which was organized in Santo Domingo to locate the site of the first church in the New World has visited the ruins of the city of Isabella, on the north coast of Santo Domingo, and their labors have been richly rewarded. They have not only discovered the square bases upon which the pillars of the church stood, but found among the ruins many old and valuable relics which will form part of that island exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition.

When Mr. F. A. Ober, the Commissioner of the Latin American Department of the World's Columbian Exposition to the West Indies, was in Santo Domingo during the past year he was presented with an ancient bell of the time of Columbus, which had been used in the chapel of the shrine of Santo Cerro in that island. This was given by the Capellan of the Sanctuary of Santo Cerro on conditon that a new bell be sent in its place, which was done.

The date of dedication of the World's Fair buildings has been changed from October 12 to October 21, the latter being really the 400th anniversary of the landing of Columbus, allowance being made for the correction in the calendar made in the time of Pope Gregory. The change was requested by the World's Fair commissioners of New York, the legislature of which State had provided for a Columbus celebration on October 21. It was thought that the two celebrations, if held simultaneously, would detract from each other. The President has issued a proclamation in which October 21 is declared to be a national holiday.—American paper.

THE LATE GEORGE HIGGIN C.E

This esteemed gentleman died at his residence. Maidenhead, on the Thames, aged 60 years, on the 8th ult. He was son of Thomas Higgin, of Lancaster, and brought up as an engineer, doing much work on Spanish railways and waterworks. He married at Madrid the Señorita Bertodano (whose mother was English) a descendant of the famous commentator on international law. Some of Mrs. Higgin's brothers became English subjects; one was an officer in the Royal Artillery: others remained Spaniards, and one of these, Marquis Moralli, was until recently Spanish Ambassador to the Vatican. Mr. Higgin came to Buenos Ayres in 1874 as representative of Mr. John F. Bateman, succeeding Mr. Alfred Moore in that post. During his residence of three years at Belgrano he took much interest in the Tigre boat-club, and Mrs. Higgin displayed much hospitality and constituted a brilliant ornament to the society of this city, In 1878 Mr. Higgin bought a cottage at Maidenhead, where he could enjoy boating. An article written by him in the Contemporary Review of 1886 on the industrial and financial condition of Spain attracted much notice at the time.

CONGRESS.

THE SENATE.

The Upper House met at 3.30 p. m. and passed the Customs Law with some slight alterations. The Finance Minister had to defend the Bill against the attacks of the "Modernistas." The House rose at 6.45 p. m., having resolved to meet on holidays till the end of the session.

THE DEPUTIES.

The Lower House met at 3.15 p. m., Dr. Gilbert in the chair.

Several extra credits, already sanctioned by the Senate, were voted; and it was agreed to sit daily, and to hold a secret sitting to-morrow.

House rose at 5.45 p.m.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

This ought to be a jolly day, as the bill of fun is long: Racing at Palermo; Bazaar at Quilmes, at Skating Rink festivity for Military Orphans; cricket here, there and everywhere, Polo, picnics, and other diversions too numerous to mention. There is reason to hope that the Clerk of the Weather will smile as he was wont to smile.

Furlotti's famous band will discourse sweet music this evening in the Hotel La Delicia in Adrogue. There was a fashionable crowd at the last concert in that favoured spot, and no doubt beauty and fashion will muster strong again this evening.

The U.S. corvette Essex is going to Colonia for a fortnight, and will then return to Ensenada.

The Prensa yesterday startled the public with the discovery of a sailor who was saved from the Rosales, with two others, thanks to an empty barrel. Our contemporary heard the story and immediately sent a reporter to ascertain the facts of the case. The limb of the Press went to Flores, where he found the sailor's family, who keep an "almacen." They told him that "efectivamente" the sailor tells the story of his having been saved with two others from the Rosales. The three tied themselves to a barrel and were picked up 24 hours afterwards by a vessel. They told the captain that they belonged to a merchant vessel and had been abandoned by the crew. One of them remained in Rio, the other is in Montevideo, and the third—the Flores man—by name Fortini—is at present on board the Patagonia. Some people think that the story is untrue and that Fortini merely related the tale in order to give himself importance. However, it ought to be easy to find out what degree of truth there is in it.

To-day's racing at Palermo finishes the year's racing at the Hipodromo Argentino. The card is a tip-top one, and big upsets are sure to turn up. The "carta de catredratico," which is over 50,000 dollars, runs an outside chance of being pulled off. It will only be a fluke if it should be pulled out. We trust that the Committee will at least put men in the judges' box that know exactly the colors of the horses and jockeys that pass the post. The decision of the last race last Sunday gave rise to a deal of unpleasantness. Our selections for to-morrow are:—

Premio Ecurie Titan — Charrúa or Vanguardia
" Stud El Plata—Huracan or Chilliarch
" Ecurie Avant Garde—Robert le Diable or Lucifer
" Definicion—Nubifer or Amazon
" Stud San Jorge—Anacoreta or Remigia
" Ecurie Golondrina - Carpintero or Guerrillero
" Ecurie Argentino — Ecurie Prisionero or Vlagna.

The poor hawkers have sworn to pray for the Lord Mayor. He has very properly postponed the basket question till the 31st of March, when, no doubt, it will be postponed again.

The time-honoured Santa Lucia fetes will begin on Monday next. Avenida Montes de Oca will be illuminated for the Corso,

There was a large crowd of sorrowing friends yesterday at the interment of the remains of the late lamented Mr. James Dodds, of Adela, in the British burial ground at the Chacarita. The most sincere regret is felt in all English circles at this estimable gentleman's premature death.

Many travellers between South America and England may have been brought into contact with Mr. Philip Hedger, who was for 39 years Secretary and Superintendent of the Southampton Docks. He has retired to private life, the Docks having been taken over by the South Western Railway. He has received the most pleasing mementoes from all connected with him in business or who worked under him.

"Reuter's Telegram Company" in London have appointed Mr. Lorenzo B. Hill as their agent in Valparaiso. "Reuter" could not have made a better choice.

The Capital of Rosario says it has spotted a comet in the firmament on high. Not to be outdone, we'll start an Observatory in connection with our Museum.

There are three important times in a man's life—when he is born, when he marries, and when he dies. And even then his own importance is overshadowed by the curiosity to know if he is a boy or a girl, what the bride wore, and what he left in his will. Vain man, you don't cut much figure in this world.

Some of our readers will probably take a run out to-day to Lomas: they will have an opportunity of seeing the Golondrinas quinta, which is to be raffled on Christmas Day.

A Kennel Club is the latest sporting development in this country, and it will meet a long-felt want. All those who feel interested in the formation of such a Club are advised that a meeting to consider the matter will be held to-morrow (Friday) at 12½ p.m. at the office of our esteemed contemporary, Sport and Pastime, Piedad 559: and those with a practical knowledge of dogs are specially invited to attend.

Men too often go to the three D's: but the ladies, bless them, never do. The two D's are more in their line, and they go there in shoals, attracted by the short and sweet little advertizements which Messrs. Deacon and Davis, of 578 Calle Victoria, sprinkle through our columns month after month. The two D's are the greatest ladies'men in town, as they supply what the fair sex so dearly love—good and genuine bargains. Their latest little "aviso" announces another great reduction in prices.

The greatest handicap of all
Is the dreary human race,
Where the running is never ended
And all are fighting for place.

We are requested to state that relatives and guardians who have children in the Irish Orphanage can now call and take their little ones away—if they so wish—for the Christmas holidays.

We have to thank the eminent publisher Mr. Jacob Peuser for still another addition to the STANDARD's bookshelves, Oliveira Cesar's delightful "Vida en los Bosques Sud Americanos," second edition, with further admirable sketches. We can warmly recommend this charming work to those fond of tales of Indian life.

Our French subscribers are all in good humour about the new Cabinet in Paris and declare it to be a right good one, and likely to last.

Poor Santiago del Estero has been quite forgotten for some time in the superior interest evolved by Dr. Romero's letter, the Cabinet crisis and the antics of the gold premium. The latest news from the distressful province is that Dr. Costa, the Interventor, is in robust health, and the elections will take place on Christmas Day.

Judge Gallegos declares that Mrs. Miranda Guiraldez, who tried to send the head of the Spiritualist sect here to the Land of Spirits before his time a month ago, by putting a few bullets into him, is no more mad than Dr. Melendez himself, and must be locked up to answer for her crime.

There was a visible improvement in the cow-horning on the tramways yesterday. It was most amusing to see some of the younger "cocheros" forget the new orders, burst out with a few notes of "Fra poco" or "Di quella pira," and then suddenly stop as if shot, on remembering the peril they were in.

Another issue of forged ten dollar free-and-easy notes is in circulation. They are easily detected by the wretched way in which General Roca's portrait is executed, and the red seal is too red and can be seen at the back of the note.

The procurator General, Dr. Garcia Merou, has floored the good Zoos by deciding that the National Government has no power to prevent pigeon shooting outside its own jurisdiction. Dr. Merou enlivens his report with several touches of humour, but it is too long (like all public documents in Spanish) to reproduce.

The wizard Oberon goes with Mr. Attwell's Wild Irishman train to Mar del Plata this morning at peep a day, to keep the passengers amused. It is quite a new idea, and not half a bad one.

Now we wish to talk business with you
NATURALLY you have either a father or mother, uncle or aunt, brother or sister, cousin or "novia" (or novio), boy or girl, (for the baby a nice, indestructible toy-book on cloth or cardboard) or perhaps a friend, to whom you would like to give
A nice Xmas. present!
NATURALLY, also, you think first of everything of giving a nice, well-bound and good book, as there is no better present than a good book.
NATURALLY, also, you want to go and buy that book at a place where you are sure to find a good selection, where prices are fair, where you are treated as a customer ought to be treated, with politeness.
NATURALLY, also, you want to go to a store which is in a central position of the city and which is kept for your convenience not the shopkeeper's. That is the reason why we keep open until 10 every night, because you have no time during the day.
Well, we have the stock (all our gift books are "nuevos flamantes"), our prices are low, we conduct our book-store as it ought to be, and we offer you a nice little extra llapa: A good Atlas for the little ones given away with every sale of $10 or more of Children books.
Respectfully yours, our local markets arrivals continued heavy, but in view of the reduction in imi's bussiness dragged.

The gold market ruled dull at the second ring; half a million dollars were sold, the premium closing at 184.50% for Friday and end of month, and 183¾% for end of January. La Plata Cedulas fell away headlong to 28.50 all round.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the second ring today:—

The s.s. Hawkburst, of London, Capt. J. K. Widgery, reports having passed a steamer on December 3rd shewing the following signal letters: "K.L.M.Q.

Messrs Luro and Sons have sold 5,000 ox-hides, 29 kilos, at 17½ gold and 5,000 cowhides, 28 kilos, at 16½ gold. The saladero killing in Montevideo is much brisker than last year, the figures being up to the 5th inst. 17,438 head killed against 8,333 same time last year.

At an rather interesting debate took place in the La Plata Chambers yesterday on the long pending Mortgage Bank reform bill. Sr. Ugalde seems to have carried everything before him. As the law stands now, passed by the Deputies, the interest and amortization due on Cedulas can be paid to the bank up to the 1st of next June in bonos or coupons and the commission in cash. After June Mortgagors can only pay off according to the law of July 1891. Article 2 of the new law gives the Mortgage Bank a moratorio for four years from the 1st of January 1893, during which time the payment of coupons in bonos is suspended. Article 3 prohibits the bank from collecting fines until it resumes payment. Article 4 allows the Mortgage Bank to liquidate its debt to the Provincial Bank in bonos. The bill now goes to the Senate. It seems to us that if the Mortgage Bank pays off its debt to the Provincial Bank in bonos, we shall have the market flooded with these bonos, and which will only be received by the Mortgage Bank in payment of interest and amortization on the Cedulas up to next June.

The Telegrafo Marittimo reports that on the 21st of September last a sailing vessel entered the port of Buen Suceso and the Subprefect of that port got a boat ready and put off to visit her, but the Captain on seeing this cleared out. The vessel carried a Chilian flag, but her name is unknown.

The value of property in Pocitos, once the favorite watering place of the River Plate, seems to have fallen greatly, as an auction was held there the other day and 32,000 square varas were sold at the miserable price of 5 cents per vara. The auction of the Grand National Hotel, Montevideo, and the grand baths alongside has been stopped by order of the Judge, as the architect has not been paid and his bill takes precedence of the mortgage to the Mortgage Bank.

The clearance of the Elbe was the business of the day and the crowd at the Central Station brought back to us the memories of quondam mole-head days. Mr. Hill was fairly enveloped in friends. We are happy to say that this popular gentleman does not leave the River Plate for ever; he has rented his house in Belgrano for only 4 months, which we expect will be the period of his absence. Some friends who went to La Plata to see passengers off in the previous steamer complained of the lack of hospitality on board, and some Flores ladies returned to their homes in Flores without even getting a cup of tea. It is of course impossible to expect where there is a great rush of people on board that the company should supply refreshments; to all and perhaps the best rule to adopt would be that of the Italian steamers and allow those but passengers on board; the friends must limit their affectionate embraces to the side of the dock or the platform of the Railway Station; this mail takes home some heavy remittances of exchange for account of the National Government and some £24,000 for account of the Entreriano Government £11,705 being to the order of Mr. Chevalier Boutell's company "The River Plate Loan and Trust agency" and £12,220 to the order of the International Bank of London; these bills were all drawn by the London and River Plate Bank at 90 days sight and 478.

The arrivals of new wool from the 1st of October to the 1st of December are as follows:—

	Kilos.
Central market	9,152,047
Constitucion market	12,533,720
To the various Barracas	1,430,000
Total	23.115,767

The official return of wool exports from the 1st October to the 30th of November is as follows:—

France	7661 bales.
Belgium	4797 ,,
England	3037 ,,
Germany	2021 ,,
Italy	237 ,,
	17,753

These figures show that a large amount of wool has gone to deposit.

Does anyone in this market want to buy the floating debt of Santa Fe, which, we believe, amounts to over 5 millions of hats? It will be sold cheap, and if not it will be consolidated. The end of the Santa Fe year is now approaching and the deficit for this year will be only two millions.

The sales of agricultural machinery this year surpass everything in that line known before in this country, and, in fact, we may aptly call the year 1892 the "machine year" of the River Plate; trains, steamboats and bullock-carts have been all taxed to their utmost to carry the machines to the farmers. We have seen cargo trains on the Rosario line crossing the Palermo road, blocking up its traffic, stopping the carriages and horses and the wealth and beauty of the town, gazing on the waggons extending for squares and squares laden with English and American agricultural machines, all passing up to Rosario and Santa Fe. It would be interesting indeed to discover from the merchants the exact number of machines sold for this crop, and it must always be borne in mind that the new machines sold of a season represent the increased industry of the country for that season and its increased crop. Judge, therefore, readers of the increased crops this year by the enormous sales of these new machines. The railway managers, who know better than anyone else what is going on in this line, are perhaps the only people in the River Plate who could tell to a cent the price of gold next May. They have in their keeping all the great secrets of the market; they know more about wool than the barraqueros; about wheat and maize than the exporters; about the produce coming in, the merchandise going out, and even the money requirements of the country than the bankers. They are fully aware of the great truth of our remarks, which they deplore, as they want to keep all such information to themselves and their London boards. No man ever sees railway managers on the Bolsa, they avoid these great centres of trade, and perhaps are too busy at their stations to attend the Bolsa at on Change hours, and it is only when Mr. Frank Parish makes a flowery speech in the assembly room of Cannon Street Hotel, London, that we catch a glimpse of what is going on at the railway stations in the Republic. We call this year "the machine year," and if the lips of our railway managers are sealed, at least the great importing merchants of agricultural machinery can come forward and endorse our statement.

It is really wonderful how low the shares of Meat Companies are in London at present. The £10 Eastmans are at 4 and the £10 Hammonds are at 1½. Mr. Drabble's speech at the recent meeting of the River Plate Fresh meat company shows that that concern is in equally low water and is unable to pay any dividend for the year. The year's business shows a decrease of 80,273 sheep, and this notwithstanding that they have arranged for lower freights. As this Drabble meat company is one of the most important in this country, we extract the following from Mr. Drabble's speech, which we doubt not will be read with much interest. Mr. Drabble, in commenting on the report which was so unfavorable remarked:—

"Still, there were one or two matters in connection with the report that were more encouraging than was the report presented at the previous meeting. First, as a trading company it was pleasing to see that whilst in the previous year they lost upwards of £10,000 on their trading, the past year showed a balance of £1,566 in favour of the company. That, however, was not sufficient to meet their fixed charges, which amounted to £6,678, and there was a consequent loss on the year's working of £3,091, which, added to the debit balance of 1891, formed a total debit of £7,107. On the other hand, they had increased the item sundry reserves from £6,784 in the previous year to £8,946, and the difference of £2,162 might be taken from the amount of £3,091, which represented the loss on the year's working, thus reducing the positive loss, even after paying their fixed charges, to about £1,000. Still, it was discouraging not to be able to declare a dividend. In further explanation of the balance-sheet, he would call their attention to the increase of the capital expenditure, which in the past year amounted to £6,606. This had arisen from a purchase of land being made, representing a total cost of about £2,000—this land being required for working on the other side—and the expenses connected with the opening of a branch for the sale of the company's mutton in Paris, where they had erected machinery and had fitted up a store and shop. Time had not yet permitted their ascertaining whether this would be a satisfactory addition to their business, but it was certain that if trade improved the company would reap the benefit, for the sheep they imported, being small, were especially suited for the Paris market. The Board knew that another house which received sheep from the River Plate had been very successful in placing them at satisfactory prices when the market was good. The selling prices, he was bound to tell them frankly, had fallen back in Paris just as they had in this country, not so much because of competition as because of bad seasons with the farmers, who had been compelled to send their stock to market and realise on the best terms possible. As to competition, a good many sheep had been received from Australia, and being small they ran very closely with those from the River Plate, apart from which they were placed upon the market at prices which this company could not possibly sell at. During the first six months of the year they made a fair amount of profit, and the Board hoped that they might meet the shareholders on the present occasion with, if not a report as satisfactory as that presented two years ago, at any rate a fairly encouraging statement. Things, however, had fallen back, especially during the last three or four months, and it was a great discouragement to the directors not to have anything better to tell the shareholders."

We were only partially right in saying that Mr. Dawney's successful business in London was the launching of the San Nicolas Water Works Company Limited; we find he has not only successfully launched this undertaking, but has also negotiated the sale of one of the largest Tramway Companies in this city, which, in the present state of these undertakings and the enormous amount of taxes &c. levied upon them by the authorities, must have necessitated a vast amount of persuasion on his part to induce our London friends to embark more capital in this class of business. We hear also that he brings with him the steam engines, pumps and machinery, also a large tower and tank, etc., etc., for completing the water supply to the town of San Fernando, thus adding another to the long list of successful Water Works promoted and construsted by him in this Republic and Europe.

Messrs. Kelsey and Co. sold to-day the following wools at the Central Market:—

Paper Money.

Projectors every now and then start up with plans for curing all the economical evils of society by means of an unlimited issue of inconvertible paper. There is, in truth, a great charm in the idea. To be able to defray the expenses of government without taxation, and, in fine, to make the fortune of the whole community, is a brilliant prospect, when once a man is capable of believing that printing a few characters on bits of paper will do it. The philosopher's stone could not be expected to do more.

The substitution of Paper for metallic currency is a national gain: any further increase of Paper beyond this is but a form of robbery.—John Stuart Mill on Inconvertible Paper Currency.

Paper Money properly means paper made legal tender, and not legally convertible into gold, or anything else, at the pleasure of the holders, or at any given period No part whatever of the value of such paper money is derived from confidence. It circulates because it is made legal tender, and because the use of a circulating medium is indispensable; and its value, supposing the demand to be constant, is in all cases inversely as the quantity in circulation.—

Important

SALE OF LAND

IN MENDOZA

One of the largest sales of first-class land ever offered to the public.

The portion of land offered contains 71 square leagues, 625 thousandth, or 179.062 hecteres of rich pasture land in Mendoza, in the department of 25 de Mayo (late San Rafael), bounded by the river Diamante and surrounded by large and important cattle establishments such as Dr. Jose Vicente Zapata, Segura, Comandante Salas, Calderon and others. The place contains large tracts of valuable woods. Situated only 10 leagues from the town of San Rafael in the direction of Buenos Ayres, within which area and bounded by both borders of the river, are situated the largest and most valuable rural establishments which this rich department possesses, such as Sres. D. Juan Francisco Garcia, Daniel Gonzalez, Cura Marcos, Fabian Correa, Emeterio Garcia, Julio Bolofeh, Cuadro Nacional, Isaac Espinola, Pablo Zorilla, Arcadio Calderon and many others, there being also large and important mills worked by water-wheels which obtain their power from the same river.

The land marks are:—North by Estancia La Chica of Don Ludoro Calderon, Rosa Salomon, Augusto S. Gil. South: by the river Diamante, the "testamentaria" de Don Diego Alvear and an English company. West: by D. Emilio Godoy and Engineer Rojas. East: by Villano Margau and Doña Nicolasa Ortega de Pasaro.

The land has been surveyed and land marked udicially by the engineers P. N. Gimenzu and E. Quiroga, by order of the judges of 1st instance, Drs. Orrego and Ruisuarez, with a railway in construction by Messrs. John G. Meiggs Son & Co., which runs across this fertile zone.

With $90,000 in Cedulas C Nacionales. The land will be sold in large and small lots, with the lowermost base of 70 cents the hectare!!!

To be bought without cash!!

There are also large valleys and cañadones capable of holding abundant water from rain-falls, besides that which is found in the Laguna cel Toro which is situated north and the river Diamante to the South. These lands have also an irrigation concession granted by the Government and embodied in the sale.

The land is rich with a heavy stratum of allivial soil, and benign climate. It is situate in parallel 34 and 35 which is known to be the zone in which the vine grows most luxuriantly and yields most abundantly. The water on the land is all sweet and wholesome and the camps for the most part high. It may be noticed that the camps by which this is bounded and which are without any of the favourable conditions of this that is to say without a railway and without frontages to the river, have been recently sold for three times more than the price at which this is offered as a base of sale.

On Wednesday 14th and Thursday 15th of December

at 3 o'clock in the afternoon

In my rooms

866—PIEDAD—566

Buenos Ayres

I will proceed to sell by public auction these splendid camps in small and large lots at the very low base of 70 cents moneda nacional the hectare. As I have stated above these camps are hypothecated to the value of 90,000 Cedulas Nacionales C, which will be divided proportionally by the Bank to each buyer, or at option pay the Cedulas or continue them at the price in the Bolsa and current rates of the market the day before the signature of the titles, so that with a very small disbursement of money or without any one can acquire excellent camps.

The sale will be effected in the order established in the plans with option of taking one or more lots.

In order that those who are interested in the purchase of these lands shall have an opportunity of going or sending to inspect the place and becoming convinced that the quality and value of them are as we stated these lands are now advertized much in advance of the sale.

The seller will assign in the titles the right of each buyer to the service of water for irrigation and to the use of aqueducts to the camp without frontage on the river.

For plans and other data and to see and inspect the titles which are without flaw, having been granted by the Government to the actual owner and seller, at my office and sale-rooms 566 Piedad Buenos Aires.

Every buyer without exception will deposit 10 o|o on account of price when he signs the boleto. 42 dc2

BRUNSWICK CAFE CO.

The General Meeting of the above Company will be held on Monday the 19th inst. at 4.30 p.m. at 650 Piedad (office of Messrs. E. E. Zimmermann and Co). Business:—1 To read and approve the Report, Accounts and Balance 2 To elect a Director of five Shareholders. 3. To elect a Syndic.

BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind. It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

What a wonderful result is this!"

And at all the Railway termini & principal Stations.

The business of Railway and General News Agents being our exclusive avocation, we devote to it unremitting personal attention, with the happy result that in a little over two years we have attained to the foremost position as purveyors of English and American newspapers and magazines in the Argentine Republic.

Our large and daily increasing clientelle will bear testimony to the fact, that in the matter of punctuality and quick despatch we are unrivalled. No matter on what day or at what hour the mails are issued from the Post Office we forward to the provinces the same night, and if not after business hours deliver to our city subscribers at their offices.

We offer the following special and quite exceptional inducements to subscribers.

Subscriptions will be booked for any term from one to twelve months.

Those subscribing for a lengthened period shall be at liberty to cancel same at any time before expiration, and will be refunded whatever sum may be standing to their credit on closing the account.

For the convenience of those who do not wish to subscribe regularly, we will on receipt of a sum from 20 cts. upwards, forward any newspaper or magazine on our list, devoting to such small transactions the same punctuality and care which we bestow on more extensive orders, thereby demonstrating, that for all classes of the British and American community, from the rich estanciero and wealthy city man, to the empleado on a small salary whether in town or camp, we are.

The Newsmen of Buenos Aires.

Our charges are moderate, but our list being too extensive for publication, we will furnish full particulars on application

We direct attention to our large and unusually varied assortment of Christmas Annuals for which we are now booking orders in advance.

Yule-tide will be the novelty of the season 96 dc5 13
